

JIM WEAGLEY, ATC

Jim attended Lock Haven University and graduated in 1977 with a degree in Health and Physical Education and specialization in Athletic Training. He received his athletic training certification in the spring of 1977. Following graduation from Lock Haven, he was a graduate assistant at East Stroudsburg University and received his master's degree in 1978.

Jim served as an assistant professor of Health and Physical Education and athletic trainer at Lincoln University, Pennsylvania from 1978-1987. During this time, he served as the Lincoln University Baseball Coach from 1980- 1985. In 1987, he became Director of the Lancaster Sports Medicine Foundation. In this position, he helped provide clinical services for sports medicine clients and developed many sports medicine education programs for the community and continuing medical education programs for local medical and allied health professionals. In 1993, Jim became the Director of Sports Medicine for Lancaster General Hospital. In this program, Jim worked with a sports medicine team and helped to coordinate clinical services for clients. He continued to develop community education programs and continuing medical education programs. Also, he coordinated athletic training services for several area high schools.

Currently, Jim is the Director of School and Community Activities for the Octorara Area School District in Atglen, Pennsylvania. In this position, he serves as the school athletic director and athletic trainer and coordinates after school enrichment and adult education programs.

Jim enjoys the reward of helping athletes with their injuries and the relationships with coaches and athletes that he has been able to develop through the field of athletic training.

Jim lives in Atglen, Pennsylvania with his wife Karen, twin sons Jeremy and Matthew and daughter Katie. He enjoys running and skiing and playing basketball, tennis and golf.
